

MEXICANS EXHIBIT TROOPER'S HEAD AS TROPHY?

PRISONER RELATES STORY TO HIDALGO COUNTY OFFICERS

Head is Said to Be That of Private Johnson, Missing Since Last Friday

BANDITS THREATEN RAID

Battery of Mountain Artillery is Dispatched to Progreso to Prevent Expected Attack

CONDITIONS BECOME ACUTE

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Sept. 28.—That the head of Private Richard J. Johnson, United States cavalryman, missing since last Friday's battle near Progreso, has been exhibited as a trophy on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, was the statement made tonight by a Mexican prisoner to Hidalgo county officers at Pharr, according to a report which reached here. The officers admitted that they were holding the Mexican in connection with the disappearance of the soldier, but declined to confirm the report.

Johnson enlisted in January, 1914, and army records give his nearest relative as Miss Katherine Johnson of No. 20 Hopkins street, Mount Morris, N. J. Johnson was 20 years old.

Show Considerable Feeling.
Considerable feeling already has manifested itself among American soldiers on the lower border because of the killing of their comrades and it was feared here tonight that the effort of such a confession on the United States soldiers might cause serious trouble.

Whether Johnson was killed on the American side and his body taken to the Mexican side or whether he was taken across the river with his horse and gun and killed on the Mexican side is still unknown. Old timers familiar with border bandits and their ways consider it probable, however, that he was shot to death on the American side and his body taken across the river in a skiff and decapitated on the Mexican side where the Mexicans could work more leisurely.

Dispatch Artillery to Progreso.
Washington, Sept. 28.—Conditions along the Mexican border in the Brownsville district again have become acute according to messages to the war department today from Maj. Gen. Funston and a battery of mountain artillery has been dispatched to Progreso, Texas, to prevent a raid by 500 bandits who threaten to cross into American territory. Colonel Blockson in command of troops near Progreso reported through General Funston that the bandits seemed to constitute an independent band.

"If Carranza does not stop these bandits," telegraphed Colonel Blockson, "I believe we shall soon be compelled to follow them across."

Secretary Garrison said he interpreted the colonel's telegram to mean that if conditions did not improve he would find it necessary to recommend that American troops be permitted to pursue attacking forces across the international line whenever necessary to deal with them.

Bears Out Blockson's Report.
Information placed in the hands of the department of justice by T. R. Beltran, Carranza consul at San Antonio, Texas, bears out to an extent Colonel Blockson's report that the bandits seem independent of Carranza control.

Mr. Beltran contends that former followers of Jesus Flores Magon, leader of a socialist movement in lower California, have organized on the border and are working surreptitiously to foment trouble between the United States and Mexico. There are intimations that outside influences are supplying the funds for the alleged plot and department of justice officials have begun an investigation. Officials here think the Carranza authorities themselves are not aware of the extent to which the alleged intrigues have been carried and are hoping relief for the situation will come through vigorous measures by the Carranza commanders.

GOODNOW STATES YUAN SHI KAI WOULD NOT ACCEPT EMPERORSHIP

Goodnow, legal adviser to the Chinese government who arrived here from the orient today on the liner Manchuria. Dr. Goodnow gives Yuan Shi Kai himself as authority for the declaration. Dr. Goodnow said that the Chinese republic is a success but declined to discuss his own recommendation for China's constitution.

FRENCH ATTACK GERMAN SECOND LINE TRENCHES

MAIN OBJECT OF OFFENSIVE HAS NOT BEEN ACCOMPLISHED

Seemingly, the Allied Movement is Not Being Carried on With the Same Impetuosity that Characterized the First Two Days of the Operations.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—In Champagne the French are attacking the German second line of trenches and are making further progress but seemingly the allies' offensive movement is not being carried on with the same impetuosity that characterized the first two days of the operations. The successes won are recognized as very important but the main object which is to break through the German lines has not yet been accomplished. Both the British and French have greatly improved their positions and, by gaining the hills and crests from which they can dominate the German lines of communication their next attempt to secure a decisive victory should be made easier to carry out in view of experts here. The French continue to push forward east of Soissons, aiming at the heights of Vimy, which command the plain to the east, while the British to the north are making secure their hold on the Lens-La Bassée road and are beating off the German counter-attacks.

The battle in Champagne is over a sixteen mile front, where the French are attacking and now are within less than two miles of the railway which crosses the country behind the German positions and which has been so useful to them in moving troops and supplies and threatened points. With the French guns within easy range the railway is rendered useless. As usual there is a great divergence between the German and French official accounts of the battles. The Germans claim that all the French attacks have been repulsed and that a number of prisoners have been captured. It is the same with regard to the crown prince's offensive in the Argonne. Whereas this is described by the French as an important action, the Germans say it is a minor one, designed to improve the situation and that the desired result has been achieved.

Heavy Fighting Continues in East.
There has been no cessation of the heavy fighting on the Russian's front. From Riga down to Galicia the armies are contesting every inch of the ground and at least four separate battles are in progress. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has resumed his effort to reach Dvinsk which town has been denied him so many times. The Germans have announced that the Russians have been driven from two successive lines of trenches to the southwest of Dvinsk.

Except for Field Marshal Von Mackensen who is held in the Priwet marshes all the German generals report advances even General Von Linz, whose army was rather roughly handled by the Russians in Volhynia having with the aid of strong reinforcements been able to take the initiative again. In addition to recapturing Lursk he has crossed the Sty river below that fortress.

In Galicia the Russian General Ivanoff is still holding the Austrians back and is himself gaining ground. "Mon negro the smallest of the allied nations, is taking a hand in the general attack on the central powers. She has launched an energetic offensive according to an unofficial message.

PLAN IS ANNOUNCED FOR FLOATING LOAN

To Establish $500,000,-
000 Credit on Five Year,
Five Per Cent Bonds

TO BE PAYABLE JOINTLY

Bonds Will Be Issued to the Public at 98, Thus Yielding
Approximately 5 1-2 Per Cent

LAMONT EXPLAINS DETAILS

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The agreement between the Anglo-French financial commission and the American bankers with whom they have been conferring over the proposed credit loan to Great Britain and France has resulted in the formation of a definite plan, it was officially announced here tonight for the establishment of a $500,000,000 loan issue on five year five per cent joint British and French bonds, payable jointly and severally by the two nations upon which the big loan will be a first lien.

The bonds will be issued to the public at 98, thus yielding approximately 5 1-2 per cent to the investor and to the nationwide syndicate of bankers which will subscribe to the loan at 96.

Morgan to Form Syndicate.
Formation of the syndicate has been left to J. P. Morgan & Co., and a large group of American bankers and financial houses.

The bonds will be issued in denominations as low as $100 and subscribers thereto may pay for them by installment.

At maturity these bonds will be repayable in cash or convertible into 4 1-2 per cent joint Anglo-French bonds redeemable from ten to twenty years thereafter by the two governments jointly and severally.

Mr. Henry Babinet Smith, a member of the commission made public the announcement. The statement was issued here in the name of Lord Reading and read as follows: "I am now in a position to make an announcement as to our proceedings."

To Use Proceeds in America.
"The discussions between the Anglo-French financial mission and the American bankers have resulted in the formation of a definite plan for a loan to the British and French governments to be issued in this country on a broad and popular basis. The proceeds of the loan will be employed exclusively in America for the purpose of making the rate of exchange more stable, thereby helping to maintain the volume of American exports."

"The plan contemplates the issue of $500,000,000 5 per cent five year bonds, constituting a direct joint and several obligation of the British and French governments, as regards both capital and interest. No other external loan has been issued by either of these governments apart from notes of the French treasury to a limited amount, maturing in the next six months. The bonds will be repayable at the end of five years or convertible, at the option of the holder, into 4 1-2 per cent bonds of the two governments, repayable not later than twenty years from the present time by the two governments jointly and severally."

Syndicate to Purchase Loan.
"The bonds will be issued to the public at 98 yielding approximately 5 1-2 per cent to the investor. The work of offering this loan will be carried out by a syndicate which Messrs. J. P. Morgan & Co., and a large group of American bankers and financial houses will at once set about to form. Such group will include representatives throughout the country and all members of the syndicate will be on precisely the same footing. This syndicate, whose business it will be to arrange that every investor shall have an opportunity to subscribe to the issue, will contract to purchase the loan from the two governments at 96."

It was announced that Russia will not participate in the loan. The two per cent margin between the prices at which the issue will be offered to the public and the syndicate likewise will reimburse members of the syndicate. It is contemplated, for their expenses in placing the loan on the market.

To bring the great offering—the largest of its kind ever placed in the United States—before investors throughout the entire nation the country will be divided into districts or zones and to each district there will be delegated a sub-committee of the syndicate managers, composed of the subscribing banks and trust

AUSTRIA FORMALLY RECALLS AMBASSADOR

STATE DEPARTMENT ARRANGING FOR SAFE CONDUCT FOR DR. DUMBA

Announcement is Made By Acting
Secretary Polk—Incident is Now Considered Closed.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Dr. Constantin T. Dumba, Austrian ambassador to the United States has been formally recalled by his government and the state department is arranging with the British and French embassies here for his safe conduct on a steamer sailing from New York, Oct. 5.

This announcement was made today by Acting Secretary Polk after receipt of a cablegram from Ambassador Penfield at Vienna telling of his conversation with Austrian officials and a message from Dr. Dumba himself asking safe conduct in accordance with instructions from his government. The incident is now considered closed.

State department officials explained that when the original note asking for recall was presented by Ambassador Penfield the Austrian foreign office contemplated recalling Dr. Dumba "on leave of absence." Dr. Dumba himself received word to that effect and asked for safe conduct. Ambassador Penfield, however, was instructed to make clear informally to the Austrian foreign office that with this government's relation severed and that "leave of absence" would not be satisfactory.

The Austrian foreign minister, Burián, then sent instructions to Ambassador Dumba to return to Vienna and at the same time told Mr. Penfield that the recall is, as a matter of course, final.

SCORE OF RIOT CALLS MARK SECOND DAY OF GARMENT WORKERS STRIKE

Union Leaders Claim Nearly 25,000
Are on Strike—Some Managers
Declare Not More Than 2,000
Have Quit Work.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—A score of riot calls, which resulted in as many arrests, but failed to develop into serious disorder, marked the second day of the Garment Workers strike here.

With union leaders claiming that nearly 25,000 were out on strike and that this number would be increased to close to 35,000 by noon tomorrow, managers of some of the leading tailoring and clothing establishments of the city declared that not more than 2,000 had quit work and that they had almost this many applicants for places left vacant.

More than thirty clothing houses were affected by the strike tonight. Thirty halls were filled with striking employees all day long and to-night extra police guards were sent to preserve order at the meeting places where the police feared, rioting might occur.

Strikers were ordered to report to these halls as soon as they left their work. There they have taken in hand by organizers and addressed for half an hour by President Sidney Hillman of the Amalgamated Clothing workers, who is directing the strike.

LUMBER DEALERS TO OPEN MEETING TODAY

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 28.—Delegates began arriving here today for the annual convention of the Western Illinois Lumber Dealers' convention which opens here tomorrow. Prominent lumbermen from St. Louis and Chicago are on the program for addresses during the two days convention.

Companies within the districts.

Cheers Greet Announcement.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Cheers from scores of Chicago's foremost bankers and business men greeted the announcement at a banquet here tonight that the $500,000,000 credit loan to France and England, the largest external loan ever contracted for in the United States, had been arranged for. The announcement was made here by Lord Reading, chairman of the Anglo-French commission, who with three other members of the body, arrived today. With them came Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan and company.

During the day Mr. Lamont explained details of the loan to practically every banker in the city and to representatives of bond houses. Tonight he expressed the opinion that the bonds would be hospitably received in this city.

Among the out of town bankers were G. P. Griffith, president of the Citizens National bank, Cincinnati, and William Stanhope Rowe, president of the First National bank, Cincinnati. James J. Hill is expected here tomorrow. The bankers were informed that information from New York today showed that banks with German connections could be counted on to do their share at the proper time.

Mr. Lamont explained that he was planned in selling the bonds to organize the whole country into districts.

WILSON WELCOMES CIVIL WAR "VETS"

President Devotes Address to The Mission of
The United States

IS LOUDLY APPLAUDED

Speaks of Civil War as One of the Few in History of Which Both Sides Could Be Proud

FORMALLY OPEN ENCAMPMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Veterans of the Civil War here for the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic were formally welcomed to the capital tonight by President Wilson who told them their battles fifty years ago were fought for the greatest instrumentality for the uplift of mankind the world has ever seen might not be impaired.

The president spoke amid scenes of patriotic fervor in the crowded convention hall into which the old census building had been converted. Colonel David J. Palmer, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., introduced him amid thunderous cheering and informed him that the veterans stood solidly behind the administration's conduct of the present day foreign problems and that their sons would support him in any steps he might take.

Speaks of Lessons of Civil War.
Applause frequently interrupted the president as he spoke to the veterans, their families and friends. He did not touch directly on the European war or on problems growing out of it but devoted his address to the mission of the United States and the lessons taught by the Civil War. He spoke of the Civil War as one of the few in history of which both sides could be proud.

At one point the noise in the hall made by late arrivals and resulting difficulty in controlling the crowd forced the president to stop speaking for nearly ten minutes while the chairman restored order.

Encampment Formally Opens.
The meeting marked the formal opening of the Grand Army encampment which will continue during the remainder of the week with the great parade and the presidential review tomorrow.

After his address the president remained in the hall while the heads of various organizations affiliated with the G. A. R. made brief addresses.

The president's address in part follows:

"It is a singular thing that men of a single generation should have witnessed what you have witnessed in the crowded fifty years which you celebrate tonight. You took part when you were young men in a struggle the meaning of which I dare say you thought would not be repeated during your life time and yet more has happened in the making of this nation in your lifetime than has ever happened in the making of any other nation in the lifetime of a dozen generations."

Made a Permanent Union.

"The nation in which you now live is not the nation for whose union you fought. You have seen many things which have made this nation one of the representative nations of the world with regard to the modern spirit of that world and you have the satisfaction which I dare say few soldiers ever had of looking back upon a war absolutely unique in this, that instead of destroying it healed, that instead of making permanent division it made a permanent union. This nation was from the beginning a spiritual enterprise and you have seen the spirits of the two once divided sections of this country absolutely united. A war which seemed as if it had the seed of every kind of bitterness in it has seen a single generation put bitterness absolutely out of its heart and you feel as I am sure the men who fought against you feel, that you were comrades even then, though you did not know it. And that now you know that you are comrades in a common love for a country which you are equally eager to serve. This is a miracle of the spirit so far as national history is concerned. This is one of the very few wars in which in one sense everybody engaged may take pride. Some wars are to be regretted; some wars are the annals of history; but some wars contrasted with those make those annals distinguished, show that the spirit of man sometimes springs to great enterprises that are even greater than his own mind had conceived."

"You set the nation free for that great career of development, of unhampered development, which the world has witnessed since the Civil War, but for my own part I would not be proud of the extraordinary physical development of this country, of its extraordinary development in material wealth and financial power did I not believe that the people of the United States wished all of this power devoted to ideal ends. There have been other nations as rich as we; there have been other nations as powerful; there have been other nations as spirited; but I hope we shall never forget that we created this nation, not to serve ourselves but to serve mankind."

Heads of Sons of Veterans Speaks.
Charles Sherman, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans, one of the speakers who followed the president, declared that the sons of men who fought for their country in the Civil War are ready now to do their full duty in the same way if called upon by the president.

MISSOURI REPUBLICANS BANQUET IN ST. LOUIS

HOLD CONFERENCES AS TO PROS-PECTIVE TICKETS

Congressman Favors a Non-Partisan
Tariff Commission, a Protective Tariff and Expansion of American
Trade Abroad—State Committee
Session.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 28.—Republican leaders from all parts of Missouri tonight attended the banquet given here by the state and St. Louis republican committees.

The principal addresses were made by U. S. Senator John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts, Congressman James R. Mann, of Illinois, and former Congressman James Watson, of Indiana.

Make No Formal Announcements.

Politicians gathered in St. Louis early tonight for the banquet and many conferences as to prospective state and national tickets were held tonight. No formal announcements were made however.

The State Committee Held a Session.

Congressman James H. Mann, of Chicago, favored a non-partisan tariff commission, a protective tariff, security for the rights of the workingman and likewise for capital, expansion of American trade abroad and protection of the flag for the pioneers who enter the foreign commercial field.

On the subject of protecting American interests abroad he said: "We might as well begin with Mexico."

"The first duty of the republican party when it comes into power again will be to write a protective tariff law and provide for a tariff commission of disinterested experts."

"The business, labor and industries of the country cannot well wait for a tariff revision until after the tariff commission has reported. We want to start up every old industry and many new ones at the earliest possible moment."

"The recent experiences of other countries bring to mind vividly the need of our country to foster and protect industries at home in order that we may have their benefit if we should be engaged in war."

Should Secure Rights of Capital.

"The rights of capital should be fairly well ascertained and secured. We cannot otherwise obtain the most complete investment of capital in great and new undertakings. The markets of the world are ripe for our picking. We need great sums of money in order to more fully develop our resources and spread our trade at home and abroad. That money may be readily secured if, and only if, its investment offers fair returns. Government instead of endeavoring to prevent or hamper the use of great combinations of capital should endeavor to fairly provide the opportunity of reasonable rewards for such investment. Large sums of money cannot be used in furthering industries at home and trade a road without greatly increasing the employment and wages of labor."

"The increase in our national wealth augmented by developing industries and trade should be participated in by those who do the manual and brain work as well as those who provide the working funds."

"That there will be trouble abroad even after a treaty of peace between the warring nations is secured seems most probable. We cannot afford to take the risk of not being prepared to defend ourselves and our rights."

"Might Begin With Mexico."

"If we make the effort to capture the markets of the world, as the opportunity now offers, we must be ready to defend and protect the rights of our citizens doing business abroad and their property. We might well begin with Mexico. Our business and financial interests cannot be expected to greatly increase our trade with other nations unless they can feel that our government will prevent the wanton seizure and destruction of their property interests as well as their agents and employees in other lands."

"It is not our duty to reform the whole world, but it is our duty to guarantee to American citizens whom we invite to engage in foreign trade and undertakings that so long as they follow peaceful and legitimate pursuits they will receive the attention and support of the American government and the protection of the American flag."

War, but for my own part I would not be proud of the extraordinary physical development of this country, of its extraordinary development in material wealth and financial power did I not believe that the people of the United States wished all of this power devoted to ideal ends. There have been other nations as rich as we; there have been other nations as powerful; there have been other nations as spirited; but I hope we shall never forget that we created this nation, not to serve ourselves but to serve mankind."

Heads of Sons of Veterans Speaks.
Charles Sherman, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans, one of the speakers who followed the president, declared that the sons of men who fought for their country in the Civil War are ready now to do their full duty in the same way if called upon by the president.

CHARGE OFFICIALS WITH NEGLIGENCE

Proceedings to Fix Responsibility for Ardmore
Explosion Are Begun

FORTY-SEVEN ARE DEAD

Santa Fe Officials Will Be Charged With Failure to Comply With Regulations

MANY BODIES BADLY BURNED

ARDMORE, Okla., Sept. 28.—Proceedings to fix the responsibility for the disaster of yesterday in which a tank car explosion caused the death of forty-seven persons, injuries to a hundred others and property loss of more than half a million dollars, were started today by the municipal authorities who charged Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railway officials with negligence. This was announced tonight by Russell Brown, city attorney of Ardmore.

Death List Stands at Forty-seven.

The death list tonight stood at forty-seven, according to a statement from police headquarters. Early official statements had placed the number of victims at fifty-five.

This discrepancy was explained tonight by the fact that several persons previously reported dead were found either in hospitals or in their homes alive after a close police check with the physicians of the city and hospitals.

The death list tonight was increased to forty-seven by the death of Otto McClurg, 15 years old of Ardmore, a messenger boy on the finding of the bodies of two negroes.

The announcement as to contemplated charges against the Gulf Colorado and Santa Fe railway came after an almost continuous all day session of the Ardmore city commission. The city attorney said tonight the Santa Fe officials would be charged with failure to comply with the regulations of the interstate commerce commission respecting the loading and handling of gasoline.

Refuses to Comment on Case.

George A. Henshaw, state corporation commissioner, today was in conference with local authorities. He would not comment on the case. When the proposed charge is filed, it is understood the complaint will be made through the Oklahoma corporation commission's office to the federal government.

The city officials it is said, will allege that the railroad company should have left the "bad order" car in which the gasoline was contained at some isolated siding according to the interstate commerce commission regulations; that the railroad company failed to do so, after it had been warned by city commissioner W. C. DeWitt that the car was leaking; that the railroad company failed to deliver the car to the Ardmore Refining company, the consignees after it had been urged to do so and further that the railroad's failure to comply with these requests after it was discovered that tank was leaking, necessitated to repair the leak, which is believed to have resulted in the explosion and the loss of at least forty-seven lives, when this repair man opened the cap on the oil tank.

Of the forty seven dead, according to the police list tonight twenty-six are white and twenty-one negroes. A number of the negroes' bodies were burned beyond recognition while those of the dead white persons in many instances were badly charred.

Ask For Aid to Bury Dead.

The task of burying its dead has proved too large a task for Ardmore to handle alone. Undertakers to care for the bodies and ministers to conduct the last rites have been summoned from other places, while physicians and surgeons to care for the injured have come from neighboring towns. Ten funerals were held today.

Two bodies of strangers were sent to their homes and once the hearse traveled the road to the Potter's field with a body charred beyond recognition and which bore no jewelry by which it could be identified.

ROLPH FILES UP BIG LEAD

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—With approximately half of the votes cast in today's primary election counted, Mayor James Rolph, Jr. has piled up a lead so commanding that his selection as a candidate for the mayoralty seems assured and his supporters claim in positive terms the election of their candidate under the state primary laws which provide that a candidate securing a majority of all votes cast at a primary election automatically is elected to office.

Mr. Bryan says that Lincoln, Neb., is the finest place of residence in the world; and the Wilson people hope nothing will occur to cut Mr. Bryan away from home.

The balance in the general fund of the U. S. treasury on September 20 was $45,997,745 as compared with a balance of $128,487,715 on the corresponding date two years ago when Republican revenue laws and appropriations were still in effect. The deficit to September 20 was $85,120,396.

That there is honor among thieves was proven again recently when men held up a train which was passing through Dakota. The robbers compelled passengers to give up their money but in a number of instances small sums were returned to men who apparently had only a few dollars with them, and a crippled man who had $20 was allowed to keep the whole sum.

Evidently the general opinion in Iowa of the state fair is similar to that held about the Illinois fair. The question is being agitated quite extensively in the neighboring state of having admission free to the 1916 fair and an appropriation of $75,000 to equal gate receipts of the past will be asked from the next legislature. Complaints were numerous about the Illinois fair this year partially because of the general lack of attractions and partially because of the parsimonious policy followed in the general arrangements.

Ownership of Our Deserts.

The National government virtually owns all our deserts although in Texas, the state owns all the public lands, says the Youth's Companion. It is probably that eventually the desert lands will pass from public ownership into the hands of private owners, by allotment of areas, the size of which will be relative to their productiveness. For it must be realized that, whereas in a well watered region five acres may be enough to support a family, anywhere from 500 to 10,000 acres may be needed to support a family in the deserts. It is all a matter of water supply, for water is primarily the basis of land utility and value, as it is the prime means of subsistence of all living things whether plants or animals.

There has been little doubt all along that Dr. Dumba, the Austrian ambassador, would be recalled as the result of the Archibald letters. The statements made earlier that he had been called to his home country temporarily to give an explanation of the case was not satisfactory to this government, and such action could have been seen here in no other light except a studied ignoring of United States demands. Yesterday, however, the official statement was announced of Dr. Dumba's recall by his government and in accordance with international usage the United States has already arranged for his safe passage. By this act the somewhat strained relations resulting from the Dumba letters have been bridged over and no doubt the incident will be smoothed out by an exchange of correspondence between the two governments.

The Love of Health.

If anyone doubts that this is an era of health propaganda he must, indeed, be oblivious of what is going on about him. Municipal, state and national agencies are using forces and funds at their disposal to further the interests of public hygiene. Educational influences are directing their energies to the spread of the lessons of procurable health in public print and in documents of both official and unofficial character. Novels and short stories, the literature of biography and travel, the platform and even the pulpit are proclaiming the gospel of health far and wide. The medical profession, more enthusiastic if not more vitally interested than any other group in the promotion and outcome of the modern hygiene movement, may well stop from time to time to inquire about the sanity of the methods of the propaganda. The religious doctrine of past ages involved threat of harm; it inculcated a fear of the destruction or danger that was sure to follow the violation of the law. This dismal attitude has long since been replaced by a religion of love, of uplift and joyous anticipation. In the health propaganda, likewise, much of the pessimistic attitude, unconsciously perhaps, has been introduced in the past. The fear of disease has been held over the heads of the people. Rarely have we seen the more appropriate spirit of the modern "better health" movement better expressed than in a recent pamphlet of the Life Extension Institute. "It is not a fear of illness or of death that we should encourage, but a love of health, a sense of responsibility for the care of our bodies, a desire for bodily endurance and efficiency and full achievement. If the mind is fixed on these ideals, and the already known means of approaching them are utilized, the needless miseries that embitter the lives of so many who are left to take care of themselves. It is not so much necessary to fight disease as to cultivate health for the happiness, contentment and moral gain that it brings." There is something unusually optimistic and buoyant in such words, says the Journal of the American Medical Association. They embody the psychological cue to comfort and happiness for many a patient, without implying that "man is incapable of sin, sickness and death," or that "health is not a condition of matter, but of mind." To inspire a love of health does not mean to exclude the great body of scientific knowledge which is the best that science can offer today regarding disease, or to replace medicine by crude metaphysics. The ardent love of health insures a mind receptive to the lessons of modern medicine.

Peace of Europe Disturbed Four Years Ago Today.

(From Boston Globe.)

Historians of the next generation will say that the great European War began on Friday afternoon, Sept. 29, 1911. This may sound startling to those who have read so often that the murder of Austrian archduke at Sarajevo, on June 28, 1914, was the spot where the conflagration started. It started long before that fatal Sunday.

Italy is going to fight the Turk again. It is a different Europe which hears this than the peaceful Europe that existed on Friday afternoon, Sept. 29, 1911, when suddenly came the news from Rome that Italy was about to hurl herself into Africa. How different, and yet how closely connected, are these two Italian declarations of war!

Before the outbreak of the Turco-Italian war, Europe was peaceful. The terrible disease from which she is now suffering was then only beginning to gnaw at her vitals in the capitals of the great powers. Leading statesmen and diplomats, those physicians who can diagnose but cannot cure the National disease of war, recognized the symptoms. They knew that the affliction would break out within a few years. All Europe was writhing to the teeth.

Germany was making an ally out of the Turk. Von der Goltz was training the Osman army. The Baghdad railroad would soon be something more than a dream and Suez would not be the shortest route to the Empire of the East.

The statesmen of England, France and Russia saw that under the guise of Pan-Germanism the balance of power was changing, and that if something were not done immediately the forehanded Teuton would be supreme. Austria, Germany and Italy, together with a highly-trained army of the greatest fighters in the world—the Turks—and a strategic railroad to India, would be more than a match for the Triple Entente.

England, France and Russia put their heads together. They wisely concluded to approach Italy, since Rome realized that in the ambitions of Pan-Germanism Italy's aspirations were the least likely to be realized. They conferred with those of Austria in the Near East.

The Allies told Italy that they would not hamper an Italian expedition into Tripoli. A large colony in Northern Africa had been the ambition of Italy even before Italy was united.

Italy struck the bait like a hungry salmon. Troops were on their way before Constantinople had time to think of appeasing concession. This war accomplished several important strokes in one. It caused trouble between an old ally of the Germans and a new one. It weakened both. A new Italian empire between French Morocco and England's Egypt meant that the Triple Alliance was a thing of the past. Italy would far prefer to break an unpopular alliance than lose a rich colony which had cost her dearly in men and money. The truth of this has been proven by recent events.

Quick on the heels of the Turco-Italian war came the Balkan struggle. With the fine new Turkish army in the African desert the diplomats of the allies at Sofia, Athens and Belgrade did not find much difficulty in pointing out the weakened condition of the Turk.

Backed by the encouragement from England, France and Russia, the Balkan States seized the opportunity occasioned by the Turco-Italian war. One grew out of the other as a development of a far-sighted plan.

With the outbreak of the Balkan war, Germany was more than ever provoked. She was alarmed. To save Constantinople and break up the united action of the Balkan States, dissension was bred among them. It has always been easy to spread dissension in the Balkan Peninsula. Once disrupted, like Humpty-Dumpty, it was impossible to bring the Balkans together again. Realizing their importance, Russia and Germany both cajoled and threatened the little nations until a reasonable and satisfactory peace became possible.

Pan-Serbianism became intensified and more closely allied with Pan-Slavism, and Pan-Slavism is nothing more than Pan-Russianism. Thus when Austria became so provoked with the increasing menace from the Serbians, now more powerful than ever before, that the famous ultimatum of Count Berchtold was delivered, Russia felt bound to stand back of Serbia—and the European War was on.

Thus it can be seen that since Friday afternoon, Sept. 29, 1911 there has been a few armistices, but no real peace, and that the Turco-Italian and the Balkan campaigns were merely preliminary struggles to the great contest which is now being waged. It is like a mighty fire burning through the forest, blazing up here, going out in one place, only to break out afresh with increased intensity elsewhere—and we cannot see the end.

STATE TYPHOID EPIDEMIC IS DUE TO INFECTED WELL AT OLD SALEM

PETERSBURG, Ill., Sept. 28.—It was said unofficially here today that the epidemic of typhoid fever in Menard county, which thus far has stricken 125 people was due to an infected well on the grounds of the Old Salem chautauqua. It is known that the sanitary engineers of the state board of health have been working on the theory that the chautauqua grounds well was responsible and have urged everyone who attended the chautauqua meetings which closed recently to submit to vaccination. Deaths due to typhoid are occurring daily in this county. The state, at the request of the municipal and county authorities, took charge of the work of fighting the disease last week.

FILE FORMAL PETITIONS ASKING FOR RE-HEARING OF RATE CASE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Formal petition asking for a re-hearing in the western advance freight rate case was filed today with the interstate commerce commission by representatives of the Western carriers. Rates which the roads want revised are on meats, livestock and food products. The principal ground on which the re-opening is asked is the failure of the commission to pass upon the need of the carriers for additional revenue, which the petition says is a "fundamental issue."

Most of the members of the commission have returned to Washington and the petition probably will be considered within a few weeks.

FARM TOPICS.

While the season is not far advanced, in several sections of the county corn cutters are at work. This is only possible in fields which were planted early, but is making possible the sowing of a considerable area of wheat, whereas the season some weeks ago made it appear that this would be impossible. There are, however, a great many cornfields which the owners intended to plant to wheat this fall where the corn is not ripe enough to shock and it will therefore be necessary to change the crop rotation plan and plant something else beside the wheat. Because of several windstorms and heavy rains in nearly all fields a portion of the corn is down. While the loss from rotting has not been great this fact makes corn shocking more slow and expensive. The average price now for shocking seems to be 20c a shock, and the men at work do not make excessive wages either.

One difficulty which alfalfa growers are encountering because of the wet season is the fact that grass has grown up in alfalfa fields which have heretofore been free from it. This is especially true in alfalfa fields which are not well drained and fox-tail seems to be taking possession of such tracts. Most fields have been cut three times this year and the fourth cutting will soon be at hand, and it is possible that this cutting, followed by harrowing, may destroy the grass and leave the fields in good conditions for next spring. In several instances though, the grass has gained such headway that the owners believe the only certain way to get rid of it and keep the remainder of the field from being choked out is by the use of the plow.

One Morgan county farmer has been much interested to note this year the different spots in his cornfield where straw had been allowed to rot. In one field in a number of places straw had been scattered and there the corn plants are much larger and the ears heavier than in other places in the field where the straw had not been scattered and allowed to rot. He believes that rotted straw warned by other farmers that this as a fertilizer brings good results and is very inexpensive but he has been rule cannot be followed. They declare that while there have been benefits from straw rotted and turned under this year that in a normal season the straw would be likely to prove a disadvantage, leaving the soil too porous and making it dry out too quickly for the benefit of the corn plants. There are, therefore, some dangers in an indiscriminate use of straw for fertilizing purposes and the results will depend very largely upon the kind of season that follows.

BIG CLAIM FILED

AGAINST SPRINGFIELD.

The city management at Springfield received a severe shock Tuesday when the Springfield Gas and Electric company presented bills, aggregating $30,800, said to be due on old accounts. The first bill was for $15,562.22, which the city is alleged to owe the company for improvements to the municipal plant, at one time leased by the company. The second bill is for light and gas furnished by the company, amounting to a little more than $15,000. Of this sum about $6000 is alleged to be for lighting the Fourth street ornamental system.

PURSE GIVEN TO PASTOR.

The people of Bethel A. M. E. church presented their retiring pastor, Rev. George T. Shaw, with a purse of $59 as a token of esteem and good will. In addition to others already mentioned Mrs. J. H. Danskin was one of the speakers at the farewell reception.

JAMES CALDWELL CHAPTER, D. A. R. ENJOYED LUNCHEON TUESDAY

Members Responded to Roll Call by Telling of Relics—Delegates to State Meeting Chosen—Program for the Year.

Members of Rev. James Caldwell chapter D. A. R. began the programs of the fall season yesterday with a luncheon at the Colonial Inn. Sixty-five members were seated at the prettily spread tables and the program of the afternoon began when Mrs. Carl E. Black, the regent, asked all to join in singing the Morgan county song to the air of "Old Folks at Home". The verses are given below. Mrs. Helen Brown Read led the singing and Mrs. J. W. Walton was at the piano. Each member had been requested to bring a relic of some kind and described them in answering the roll. As a result a great many interesting articles were exhibited and historic facts related about them.

Mrs. T. M. Tomlinson had an old fashioned silk calash, a huge bit of headgear of the kind worn by women about a century since. It was the property of Mr. Tomlinson's mother and came originally from Philadelphia.

Among the articles exhibited was a plate owned by Mrs. W. T. Wilson, one from a set of dishes used in the Van Vleck home at Kinderhook, N. Y. when Gen. Burgoyne was entertained there about the time of the battle of Saratoga; a bedspread embroidered by relatives of Miss Sue Fox in 1830; a letter written by Aaron Burr owned by Miss Effie Eppler; knives used by Washington and Lafayette, owned by Mrs. S. O. Barr. Still other very interesting relics were shown by Mrs. Miller Weir, Mrs. David Reid, Mrs. J. Marshall Miller, Mrs. George W. Brown, Mrs. Lillian King, Mrs. J. H. Danskin, Mrs. Mollie Dunlap, Miss Mary Wright and Miss Burnett of Waverly and others.

Mrs. E. P. Cleary read some passages from a book brought by Mrs. Carlton Taylor. The theme was "The Whole Duty of Woman", and the members of the chapter, as they heard some of the ideas of the writer recorded a century ago, were impressed with "how times have changed".

At the business session Mrs. Carl E. Black and Mrs. J. W. Hubble were named delegates to the state convention to be held in Bloomington, Oct. 20-21 and 22 with Mrs. W. T. Wilson, Mrs. O. F. Buffe and Mrs. George Tremblett as alternates.

Morgan County Song.

Where flow the Mauvalsterre's clear waters,

Not far away,

There dwell old Morgan's sons and daughters,

There's where the good folks stay;

All down from Indian Creek to Apple,

'Cross Big Sandee,

You'll never with such people grapple,

These are the stalwarts, you see.

Chorus.

Illinois, we truly love thee,

And thy scenes adore,

But O, Morgan, our own dear Morgan,

We love, yes, we love thee more.

In Morgan's schools, o'er hill and valley,

Spots that we love,

There's where the finest children rally,

Rally for the truths above;

When shall we see them all a-comeing

At the bell's sound?

When will they stop their noisy humming?

Ne'er were such children found.

Why wander over all creation

We need not roam,

But try to fill our humble station,

Work for the good folks at home;

Whatever creed or occupation,

You'll find us true,

And loyal to this grand old nation

Under the red, white and blue.

STATES HAVE STRICT GAME

TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

Changes in the Law of Interest to Mississippi Valley Territory Related in Recent Bulletin.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 28.—Three important changes have radically affected traffic in game in the Mississippi Valley Territory during the present year, according to Farmers' Bulletin 992. In February the Supreme Court of Arkansas held that a local law permitting shipment of game from the Chickasawba district of Mississippi county, Ark., was unconstitutional, and that the general law prohibiting shipment of game was in effect in this county as well as in other parts of the State. A little later the Legislature of Tennessee prohibited the sale of all protected game taken within the State, thereby cutting off the market for ducks killed on Rook-foot Lake. Finally, in June, a new game law as passed in Illinois prohibiting sale of all game, native or imported, except rabbits. For 20 years or more Illinois has permitted the sale at certain seasons of game imported from other States. Illinois now not only prohibits the sale but also the export of all protected game except rabbits. Missouri has strengthened its export law by a provision prohibiting export of quail for any purpose.

Bag Limits.

A bag-limit law was passed for the first time in Arkansas applicable to deer, bear, turkey, quail and ducks. Limits were established in Connecticut on squirrels and waterfowl; in New Hampshire on quail, ruffed grouse, and woodcock; and in Pennsylvania on bear. Indiana, which opened the season on prairie chickens for the first time in several years, provided a limit of five birds per day.

Reductions in limits were made on deer in Alaska from 6 to 3, in Montana from 3 to 2, and in Michigan and Nevada from 2 to 1. In the case of birds the more important reductions in daily bag limits were made in Illinois on doves from 15 to 10; in Iowa on quail from 25 to 15; and on prairie chickens from 25 to 8; in Minnesota on all birds except ducks, from 15 to 10; in Oklahoma on quail, plover, snipe and ducks, from 25 to 10. Only a few increases were provided: In Illinois on shore birds, in Missouri on birds except turkeys from 10 to 15, and in Nevada on quail from 15 to 20.

Licenses.

Resident licenses were provided for the first time in three Southern States—Arkansas, South Carolina and Tennessee. Arkansas established a $1 license for deer and a $1 license for dogs used in hunting quail; South Carolina a license of $2 for hunting in the county and $3 in the state, but 27 counties were exempt from the operation of the act; and Tennessee a $1 license for one county and $2 for the state. New Mexico and Vermont joined the list of states which now issue combined hunting and fishing licenses. Delaware, following the example of West Virginia in 1913, repealed the resident license provision adopted two years ago, while West Virginia repealed the license by issuing free licenses to persons hunting in the county of residence and requiring a fee of $3 to hunt elsewhere in the State. Fees for nonresident licenses were reduced in Illinois from $15 to $10, in Maine from $25 to $15, and in the special elk resident license in Wyoming from $15 to $10. New Hampshire and South Carolina, on the other hand, increased the nonresident fee in each case from $10 to $15, and Manitoba the resident big game license from $2 to $4. Exemptions were provided in a few cases—notably in Illinois, which allows veterans of the Civil War to hunt without a license, and in Oregon, which issues free licenses to veterans. In the latter State women are now allowed to hunt and fish without license but in New Mexico similar privileges are not extended. North Dakota allowed actual settlers to obtain a resident license, even though they have not acquired residence. In Michigan and Minnesota all residents are now required to obtain licenses to hunt in the county of residence. In North Dakota and Vermont conviction of violating the game laws not only results in forfeiture of license, but renders the holder ineligible to obtain another for a year, except in Vermont, without the consent of the game commissioner.

BRIDE OF LAST JUNE

SUCCUMBS TO TYPHOID

Sixth Death Marks Ravages of Disease at Petersburg—Believe Epidemic Due to Water at Old Salem Chautauqua.

Petersburg, Ill., Sept. 28.—Whispering a farewell to her husband, who also is critically ill of the fever in an adjoining room, Mrs. James Ogden, a bride last June, died at her home here late yesterday afternoon. The case is one of the most pathetic in all typhoid-ridden Menard county. In addition to the critical state of affairs in the Ogden home, Miss Edith Conyers, sister of the deceased woman, is lying at death's door in a hospital in Chicago, a victim of the same malady which has swept five persons into the grave in this vicinity since the scourge began. Mrs. Ogden, who was but 24 years of age, had been ill only one week, but the disease, complicated by a weak heart, found her an easy victim.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced as yet but it is believed interment will be made tomorrow. The deceased is also survived by two other sisters, Mrs. Elsie Linther of Chandlerville and Mrs. Ellis Severe of Ashland. Mrs. Clara Conyer's the young woman's mother, in feeble health as a result of the shock and nervous strain to which she has been subjected. Chester Conyers, a brother of the dead girl, resides in Wyoming.

The Sufferers.
John Fahy, recovering at the St. John's hospital following an operation for relief from appendicitis, complicated with typhoid fever.

Dr. B. D. Epling is improving at the Springfield hospital, where he was taken when seized with typhoid fever.

Miss Helen Houghton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houghton, is very seriously ill with the scourge at Chicago, where she went to visit relatives.

Mrs. Walter Watkins who is suffering with typhoid fever at the Springfield hospital in Springfield, is slightly improved according to reports.

Little Miss Audrey Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hill, is a convalescent typhoid sufferer. Her father, who has been ill, is able to return to work.

Samuel Watt is seriously ill with the fever.

Miss Stella Salvesson, who was last year at Illinois college is reported better. George Daniels, Jr., and Miss Mildred Daniels are improving slowly, and their sister, Mrs. Carl A. Kirby is now convalescing. Chas. Montgomery, now a week ago was very low, is recovering.

Water Reported Dangerous.
Athens, Ill., Sept. 28.—It is reported here that the only cases so far suffering with typhoid fever are those who attended the Old Salem Chautauqua which closed at Petersburg a month ago. It is further reported on semi-official authority that the water taken from the hydrant at the Chautauqua grounds contained enough germs to cause an instant case of typhoid.

WILL GO TO LOS ANGELES.
Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Crouch and son will probably leave the coming week for Los Angeles to spend the winter. Dr. Crouch will be the medical superintendent of Canyoncrest sanatorium at Glendale, a suburb of Los Angeles, during the winter and spring months. The sanatorium is a well known institution for the care of mental cases. Dr. Crouch accepted the superintendency with the intention of making his stay more extended than that already mentioned if he finds conditions there meet his expectations.

By day there is a golden haze, by night the heavens glow with stars; and agents chase me all my days, resolved to sell me motor cars. The maple leaves begin to fall, they've had their little passing day, and on the crumbling garden wall, the vines are showing dun and gray. I am inspired to effort new, I feel that I could write a poem, but auto men obstruct the view, they form a ring around my home. The birds are chirping in the trees, as though great projects were in hand; they'll shortly leave such scenes as these, and fly to some far southern land. But auto salesmen are a bar, they hang around the whole day long, each boasting his unrivaled car, and keep my mind from Art and Song. The wind to northern quarters shifts, and walls at night with demon mirth, and soon the snow, in mighty drifts, will lie upon the frozen earth. Then to my window they will come, the auto agents, undis-mayed, with frosted ears and fingers numb, and bone me till they get my trade.

I am inspired to effort new, I feel that I could write a poem, but auto men obstruct the view, they form a ring around my home. The birds are chirping in the trees, as though great projects were in hand; they'll shortly leave such scenes as these, and fly to some far southern land. But auto salesmen are a bar, they hang around the whole day long, each boasting his unrivaled car, and keep my mind from Art and Song. The wind to northern quarters shifts, and walls at night with demon mirth, and soon the snow, in mighty drifts, will lie upon the frozen earth. Then to my window they will come, the auto agents, undis-mayed, with frosted ears and fingers numb, and bone me till they get my trade.

Autumn Reflections.
The farmer hauls his wheat to town and puts the plunder in the bank; the sunflowers shrivel, rank by rank. The grass is turning sere and brown. By day there is a golden haze, by night the heavens glow with stars; and agents chase me all my days, resolved to sell me motor cars. The maple leaves begin to fall, they've had their little passing day, and on the crumbling garden wall, the vines are showing dun and gray. MR. AND MRS. FRANK DOAN HERE

AFTER STAY AT CAROLINA HOME

Find the South a Land of Comfort and Possibility—Miami a Beautiful City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Doan have arrived in the city from their summer home in the mountain region of North Carolina and will soon start for their residence in Miami, Florida. They are now guests at the home of Mr. Doan's brother, Howard Doan, on Webster avenue.

Miami is but twenty years old and Mr. Doan has resided there eighteen years of that time and has seen a marvelous growth in the place. It has become almost a mecca for wealthy northerners who desire a place either for winter or a permanent residence among tropical surroundings. Mr. Doan is quite enthusiastic over his Florida residence and has many things to say regarding it.

The climate there is of course tropical though in the hottest time in summer the mercury seldom goes as high as 91 degrees. Trade winds begin about nine p. m. and continue till five a. m. and then die down for a while and then begin again blowing pretty much all day so that the heat is not so very oppressive. In winter the mercury seldom gets as low as forty degrees above. A slight frost has been known there but only enough to kill tender plants such as very young beans and tomatoes but not enough to injure the tree of any kind as has been the case in other parts of the state. The winter temperature is generally an average of 72 and quite equable with little variation day or night. There is some rain in the summer and crops can be grown without irrigation though it is better to add artificial moisture.

Agriculture is coming more and more to the front and men are studying best methods. It is expensive to clear the land of natural thicket and growth and fertilizers are indispensable to the growth of any crop. Para grass from South America is a fine crop furnishing four to five cuttings in a year. Then Rhodes grass from South Africa can be cut each six weeks and is a valuable stock feed. There is a kind of flint corn which is impervious to worms and grows three crops a year. It is from Cuba.

Fruits are of course abundant. Grape fruit is the most common; then alfalfa, peas, pine apples, some oranges and lemons but not so many as in other parts of the state; berries, mulberries, papayas which are a kind of fruit the shape of a cucumber, about eight inches long and three in diameter, very yellow inside and rich. They are a species of palm and the fruit grows in bunches or a cluster about the top of the trees which are some six or seven inches in diameter and ten to fourteen feet high; custard apple, teese or egg plant and many others. Of course vegetables are abundant. There are hundreds of acres in tomatoes and other vegetables for the early market. One man has a field of four hundred acres all in tomatoes. Much money has been made in fruits though last year grape fruit was so plenty that a man had a great lot of boxes full and a sign saying, "Take all you want but leave the boxes." Cocoa nuts are so abundant that they lie untouched on the ground.

The city is but twenty years old and has a population of some 20,000, mostly acquired during the past four years. The buildings are largely reinforced concrete and the streets are paved mostly with asphalt and concrete blocks with concrete foundations. There are four banks doing a large

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

WET WEATHER BRINGS ABOUT
ADVANCE IN WHEAT MARKET

Prices Close Steady at 1 to 2 Cents Net Higher—Outcome in Corn Varies.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Wet weather that put a stop to threshing in the northwest had a good deal to do with bringing about an advance today in the wheat market here. Prices closed strong 1 1/2@1 3/4 to 2c net higher, with December at 90c@91c and May at 88 1/2@89c.

The outcome in corn varied from a decline to 1/2c@3/4c gain.

Oats from 1/2c off to 1/4c up.

Provisions finished the same as last night to 25c higher.

Assertions that threshing had come to a virtual standstill in the Dakotas and Minnesota gave the wheat bulls an advantage almost from the start. The outlook was that because of delays by rain the receipts, especially at Minneapolis, for the next few days would be much less plentiful than had been expected.

As the movement of the winter crop continued to be disappointing and as cable advices proved adverse to the bears quotations soon began to climb and at no time thereafter encountered any decided check.

BURR NOW GETS BREATH EASIER

Springfield Man Suffered Much From Bad Case of Catarrh.

TANLAC RELIEVED HIM.

After suffering for years from a bad cold and finding no relief from various treatments, some persons apparently resign themselves to their fate and make no further efforts to find their way back to health. Frederick Burr, who is employed at 708 North Glenwood, Springfield, Ill., had almost reached that state when his friends persuaded him to try Tanlac, the "Master Medicine" now being introduced in this city. Mr. Burr in discussing the benefits he had derived from the use of Tanlac, said:

"Before I began taking Tanlac, I had suffered intensely with catarrh for a number of years. It was difficult for me to breathe when I was asleep and when I would get up in the morning my nose would be all closed up. I tried several remedies but nothing seemed to do me any permanent good. I became nervous, rundown because of the little rest which I was getting and had about given up hope of obtaining relief. I heard about Tanlac and the good it was doing so decided to try a bottle. I am glad to say my catarrh is nearly gone. My nose does not close up like it used to, and I can breathe much easier. I get a good rest every night which makes me feel like a new man. I've told a great many of my friends how much good Tanlac did me but I want them all to know about it, and I am glad to say this publicly because they may benefit as much as I have if they are in bad health."

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine," is now being sold in Jacksonville at the drug store of Coover & Shreve.

"MAKE CHUMS OF THE BOYS", ADVICE TO MEN BY A.W. CONNER

"Boy's Friend" at Central Christian Church Says There Is No Boy Problem When Friendship Prevails—Boy's and Girls' Week Program.

"The Boy from 8 to 14 Years of Age," was the theme last night of A. W. Conner at Central Christian church. "Boys' and Girls' Week" is beginning with good promise and the many boys and girls who assembled at the church yesterday afternoon augured well for the success of the series. In 1894 Mr. Conner lost his son and ever since he has devoted himself to work in boy's interests. Mr. Conner's theme tonight will be "The Big Boy, His Nature and His Power."

The meetings for boys are held at 4 o'clock each afternoon and at the same hour, Miss Mary Seeger conducts special meetings for girls. These meetings lead to the "Dungceon" for the boys and to the "Red Cross Crusade" for the girls. All lectures and meetings are undenominational and nonsectarian and all are free to the public.

To understand the boy it is necessary to know what he does and why he does it, asserts Mr. Conner. The character of the boy is determined by three factors, nature, outward conditions and the way in which time is spent. Analyzing the nature of the boy between 8 and 14, Mr. Conner makes the following division:

Fun and play, 50 per cent; fight, 20 per cent; mystery, 15 per cent; work, 10 per cent; reason, 3 per cent and religion 2 per cent.

For the development of all of these the only basis is friendship. The boy carries in his mind a composite idea of what a man should be. From 8 to 14 years, there is little place in his nature for the feminine. Girls he looks upon with disdain and his mother even may often be the subject of apology.

The boy's capacity for play should be rightly guided by friendship. His love for the mysterious has its rightful place. The boy's religious nature, though all but undeveloped, should not be slighted and it must be remembered that the boy may have the best of Sunday school attendance records and his religious nature remain dormant.

Men do not associate with their boys enough. They do not understand them and thus never make chums of them. The most religious and upright man may be tailors away from the life of his boy. No boy who has been made a chum by his father is in danger of going wrong.

FARM SUPPLY CO. WILL DISTRIBUTE AUBURN CARS.

The Jacksonville Farm Supply Co. has taken the agency for the Auburn automobiles and will distribute these well known cars in eighteen or twenty counties. The Auburn car is manufactured by the Eckman Bros. at Auburn, Ind., and the company enjoys the distinction of being the oldest automobile concern which has retained original personnel of officers and stockholders. Mr. Mackness of Jacksonville Farm Supply company has sold buggies for the firm for a number of years and the fact of his cordial relations with the firm had much to do with the Farm Supply company being selected as the distributors for this central Illinois territory. The company manufactures a 4-cylinder 38-horse power which sells at $985; a 6-cylinder 38 which sells at $1,650, and a 6 cylinder 40 for $1,375. Rayborn, William Burmeister has just finished delivering as fine a crop of wheat as is generally to be found about the vicinity. He had seventy acres and sowed it with Turkey Red bearded wheat and as soon as possible stacked it. He just finished the threshing and delivering and from the seventy acres he delivered to T. U. Fox at Sinclair 2057 bushels for which he received $1.05 a bushel. Almost thirty bushels to acre and at the price named was a pretty good yield. From twenty acres Mr. Burmeister threshed 824 bushels of oats also of a good quality.

CAN FIVE STUDENTS PLAY FOOT BALL ON QUINCY TEAM?

That is the question That is Confronting the Management on the Eve of the Jacksonville-Quincy Game.

The question of eligibility is up at the Quincy high school, the team that is to meet Jacksonville high Saturday. Under an old rule, if enforced, five of the Quincy players can be barred. Quincy plays one game with an Iowa school, three with Missouri schools and three with Illinois schools. Macomb says the rule must apply to the Macomb-Quincy game, and Keokuk says the same thing. Quincy has plenty of material for the line, but the team is weak in kicking and passing. A punter and forward passer must be found to fully equip the team.

Coach Huber is grooming his men for the fray Saturday and was unable in the contest against Carrollton to see where the local lads needed coaching the worst. The Jacksonville team is not so heavy but they expect to make up for weight by snappy playing.

There will be a burgeo on Salem church lawn Wednesday evening, Sept. 29th, commencing at 4 p. m.

WESTMINSTER SOCIAL

Rothwell, Thomas Harber, John Miller, John Peterson and Otis Erney composed the refreshment committee and Arthur G. Cody was chairman of the evening.

For over twenty years Mr. Conner has worked with boys. FISKE O'HARA COMES MONDAY.

"Kilkenny" is the name of Fiske O'Hara's new play, in which he will be presented this season, and which was written by that master of Irish plays, Augustus Pitou, Sr. The young Irish tenor will be presented in this city at the Grand Opera House next Monday.

"Kilkenny" is a story of maternal love. In the affectionate comradeship between Lady Catherine Desmond and her son Richard, she reads with a mother's intuition, the innermost secrets of his heart. Early in the play she discovers his love for Molina Carroll, and after a scene with him in the first act when she leaves him alone on the stage, she exclaims, "She has read the secret of my heart". Throughout the play, Richard tenderly calls his mother Sweetheart. In one scene with his mother, Mrs. O'Hara sings "Dear Mother Mine", which was especially written for "Kilkenny".

HAXTON FOUND GUILTY ON ONE COUNT OF INDICTMENT

Jury Soon Able to Reach Verdict—Mrs. Haxton's Trial Now in Progress.

The jury which heard the evidence against Walter Haxton who was charged with selling liquor in anti-saloon territory returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty on one count. He was tried on three counts. Judge Thomson will pass sentence today. The statement made yesterday that Haxton had been previously convicted on two counts seems to be in error, and the present conviction is the second recorded. Under the law the maximum penalty will be thirty days in jail and a fine of $200. The state's witnesses in this case were Sheriff Grant Graff and Frank Lair and Paul Dennis, who were employed by the sheriff to secure evidence.

Sheriff Graff when on the witness stand related going to Haxton's home one evening several months ago when he saw Dennis secure a bottle of beer and pay Haxton for it. Dennis when on the stand swore that he had previously purchased whisky from Haxton on several occasions. The testimony of Lair was along the same line. The state also introduced as evidence the record of the county court showing that Haxton had previously been convicted of selling liquor in anti-saloon territory and the further fact that he has a government license for the sale of liquor. The jury retired to consider the instructions of the court about 3 o'clock and about an hour later the verdict was returned.

As soon as this case had been given to the jury the examination of jurors to try Mrs. Walter Haxton for a charge of selling liquor in anti-saloon territory was begun. Not as much time was taken in the examination of jurors for this case as had been consumed in the previous one, and several of the same jurors were selected. The entire jury is as follows: James Bushnell, Meredosa; J. L. Black, Litterberry; Henry Martin, Centerville; L. Weigand, Jacksonville; Henry Strawn, Alexander; Clark Cannon, Centerville; S. V. Hidden, Murrayville; Frank Hymes, Sinclair; J. H. Begnel, Woodson; O. C. Coaltas, Lynnville; H. L. Percell, Jacksonville; Newton Moss, Sinclair. The opening statements will be made this morning when court reconvenes at 9 o'clock and the taking of testimony will begin very soon thereafter.
